II. Rewrite the following paragraph and show possession using the underlined phrases. (7-12)

The project of Mayor Alfred Francisco earned the admiration of his townmates. To improve the lives of the people, he initiated a Livelihood Program for them. This program consisted of teaching them cottage industries like soap making, candle making, and sack making. The work of the mayor had the full support of the Kagawad members. Together, they constructed a Day Care Center for the children of the housewives who were busy in their work. There was no crime in the community because the job of the men was to provide security on a twenty-four-hour basis. Gradually the once sleepy town bustled with life. The transformation was due to the participation of everyone.

III. Write on the blank the correct demonstrative pronouns to be used for the underlined phrases.
