

Have to, don't have to, must, mustn't

Complete with the correct option.

1. Jack _____ go home early last night.
2. Children _____ play with cleaning liquids.
3. We _____ get going it's already midnight!
4. You _____ do the cleaning up this morning, I will!
5. They _____ visit the doctor yesterday, as they were not feeling well.
6. You _____ come to the meeting, but it will be nice if you are there.
7. You _____ start saving money if you want to retire in few years.
8. We _____ visit the doctor every year because the Social Security requires it.
9. I _____ call my dad every day. I like it.
10. My brother _____ wear a tie in his work, I do.
11. You _____ eat healthier and stop smoking, you will feel better. The doctor said that.
12. I _____ study tonight, my exam is tomorrow.
13. People _____ drink and drive cars. It is prohibited.
14. John can't come because he _____ work tomorrow.
15. We _____ speak when the teacher is speaking.
16. I can hear you. You _____ shout.
17. She has a big problem. We _____ help her.
18. You _____ sign a document without reading it first.
19. In Britain you _____ drive on the left.
20. Every player in a football team _____ have a number.
21. You _____ forget his birthday again.
22. Doctors sometimes _____ work at the weekend.
23. Nowadays in Spain pupils _____ learn Latin at school. It's optional.
24. Bill starts work at 6 a.m. He _____ get up at 4:30 a.m.