3. Put the parts of the story in order. Write the numbers from 1 to 6.

Percy goes on a quest to the Underworld to get Zeus's master bolt and to save his mother.

Percy learns that he is a half-blood: half-human, half-god.

Percy and his friends discover who the real thief is and save Percy's mother and end the war.

At camp, Percy learns more information about himself: his father is Poseidon, god of the Sea and brother to Zeus and Hades.

During this quest, the three friends fight vicious monsters like Medusa and they almost lose their memory.

Percy goes to Camp Half-Blood in New York, a camp that is safe from monsters that like to attack half-bloods.
