Listen to a radio interview with Lena, who writes a blog, and choose the best answer (A, B or C).

1) Why did Lena start her blog?

A She was surprised by young people's poor money management.

B She was disappointed that schools didn't teach money management.

C She was impressed by the way her sister managed her money.

2) What does Lena say about her use of time?

A She wastes time and then has to work hard to catch up.

B She puts most of her time into school work.

C She takes regular breaks when she's working.

3) What does Lena think about sharing her own experiences on the blog?

A She thinks doing this all the time would make her blog dull.

B She thinks she would lose her private life if she did this.

C She thinks doing this is only useful when it can entertain people.

4) What's Lena's opinion of shampoo?

A It's better to use shampoo that doesn't need water.

B It's easier to stop using shampoo than toothpaste and soap.

C It's not worth giving up shampoo.

5) What advice does Lena give about saving money?

A Keep your money in the bank.

B Ask someone else to keep it safe.

C Decide on an amount to save each month.

6) What's Lena's biggest tip for spending less?

A Prepare your own coffee at home.

B Buy second-hand clothes on the internet.

C Give people homemade birthday cards.

7) How does Lena feel about the 'thirty-day rule'?

A She's more enthusiastic about it at some times of year than at others.

B She's fed up with using it when she's shopping.

C She's sorry that she decided to follow it.