

Simple Subjects & Predicates

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. All sentences have two parts. A subject and a predicate. The simple subject is the one word which tells who or what the sentence is about. A simple predicate is the one word that tells what the subject is or is doing. It is a verb.

Subject predicate

The fireman pointed the hose at the fire.

Type the simple subject and simple predicate for each sentence in each box.
