

A mugging incident

I (1) _____ (always/ be) careful when going home alone, but unfortunately last night I (2) _____ (mug).

I (3) _____ (walk) for a few minutes when suddenly I heard footsteps behind me. Before I could turn around, someone grabbed my wrist, twisting it behind my back. The assailant whispered he (4) _____ (hurt) me unless I (5) _____ (do) as he said. He ended up taking my phone and purse. After the incident, I ran home and told my parents everything that (6) _____ (happen). I was unable (7) _____ (control) my feelings and I cried until the police arrived. I spent some time (8) _____ (answer) their questions. I gave as many facts as I (9) _____ (remember) and they came up with an identikit drawing that looked just like the criminal.

Hopefully by this time tomorrow, they (10) _____ (catch) him.
