

1 Listen and enjoy

Burning like embers, falling, tender
 Longing for the days of no surrender
 Years ago
 And will you know

ember (noun) a piece of wood or coal that is still hot and red after a fire has stopped burning

2 "tender" is it

an adjective or a verb ?

3. surrender

Discuss. Which meaning?

- to say officially that you have been defeated and will stop fighting
- to allow yourself to show your feelings and to do what you really want to do

5 Make Zero Conditional statements.

1. If I am late for class, I miss important information.
2. When he stays up very late, _____
3. People get hungry _____
4. If you study hard, _____
5. When she watches a movie, _____
6. When I cross the street, _____

long for (verb) to want something very much

long for

I long for you, in your absence, and in your presence, just the same: endlessly.

-William C. Hannan

tender

gentle in a way that shows that you care about someone or something

4 Read the sentence.

So smoke 'em if you got 'em
 'Cause it's going down

Is it about:

the present

the past the future ?

6 Idiom.

go down

definitions

To move or travel to a person, place, or thing located below or south of one's current location.

To fall or decrease to a particular level or degree.

Which meaning?