The Write Tribe

BEING RESPONSIBLE

PART 1

Topic: Being responsible

Consider the following points when you plan your composition.

- What were you responsible for?
- What happened?
- How did you solve the problem?
- Why was it important?
- What was the lesson learnt?

INTRODUCTION

For this assignment's composition, you will be graded on how well you have used the components to create an INTRODUCTION that flows well with the rest of the story

EXERCISE 1

---

USE METAPHORS / SIMILES / PERSONIFICATION TO DESCRIBE WEATHER

I was _____ all the way to the mall in joy. My Mom had entrusted me with buying the perfect gift for Dad.
WALK CYCLE

She also promised me that I can use the leftover money to reward myself.

---

---

FACIAL EXPRESSION

as I looked at the wallet full of green notes. I could not stop fantasizing on what I should buy. I carefully slipped the wallet into my backpack and zipped it. I am not the most responsible person.

---

---

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Also, I would not dream of getting into trouble with Mom.

---

---

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Feeling parched, I decided to buy myself an ice blended coffee. As I enjoyed the coffee, I decided to place the backpack beside me.

EXERCISE 3

"I don't think that's a good idea to bring that to school"

_____ my mother as I slipped my passport into my backpack. "But Mom! My friend Davies does not believe I had ever visited a country called Guatemala. He doesn't even believe that Guatemala exists! He thinks I am making it up!" I
SPEECH TAG

_____ as I hastily combed my hair, preparing
SPEECH TAG

myself for school. "If you lose it, you'd have to make a police report and you're going to do that yourself!" Mom _____ before letting out an exasperated sigh.
