Dear Mr Taylor,

I am writing to complain about the room I am renting. It's on the tenth There is a, but it doesn't work, so I have to walk up ten flights of It's dark in the because all the are broken.

The advert said the room is, but all the is old and broken. I can't sleep in the because it's so uncomfortable. And there are no in the windows. And it's freezing! None of the work at all.

I am moving out at the end of the week.

Yours sincerely,

Anna Bowden
