

THE COP & THE ANTHEM : WORKSHEET

Q1. MATCH THE FOLLOWING NOUNS WITH THE ADJECTIVES USED TO DESCRIBE THEM IN THE STORY.

☐ NOUN

☐ ADJECTIVE

☐ MOON-

☐ TATTERED

☐ ORGAN NOTES-

☐ IGNOBLE

☐ CAFE-

☐ ELUSIVE

☐ TROUSERS-

☐ FULL AND RADIANT

☐ FATE-

☐ LUXURIOUS

☐ DREAM-

☐ SOLEMN BUT SWEET

Q2. CHOOSE THE RIGHT ANSWER

i) Soapy wants to go to the prison because...

- ❖ he wants to make a man of himself.
- ❖ he feels that there is freedom (from miseries and worries) in confinement.
- ❖ he is tired of living a luxurious life in Madison Square.

ii) The specific meaning of the word 'anthem ' in the content of the story is...

- ❖ a song of rebellion.
- ❖ a song of hope.
- ❖ a song of revenge.

Q3. WHO AM I?
(TYPE THE CORRECT ANSWER).

I) I was presented a black bow by a lady missionary on Thanksgiving Day.

ANSWER:

ii) I had once offered Soapy a place as a driver.

ANSWER:

iii) I passed a verdict on Soapy , declaring him guilty.

ANSWER:

Q4. COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING WEBS.

- i) Mention the 'disorderly conduct' manifested by Soapy in front of a theatre.

yelled drunken gibberish at the top of his voice.

Soapy

ii) Describe the restaurant in which Soapy feasted himself.

A restaurant of no great pretensions

Restaurant

III) Describe Soapy's present life

Degraded days

Degraded state of Soapy.

Q5. Make a list of words from the story indicating prison.

ANSWER:

➤ _____

➤ _____

➤ _____

➤ _____

Q6. Find out from the story one word for the following and locate it in the puzzle.

- ❖ Fraud (page 29:last three paras)
- ❖ Worn out(page 28:last para)
- ❖ Table cloth and napkins
(page 29 fourth last para)
- ❖ Theft of personal property
(page 30:third last para)
- ❖ Policeman (page 29 :last three paras)

REARRANGE THE FOLLOWING IN THE CORRECT ORDER OF OCCURANCE.

- 1) A policeman mistook Soapy to be a lad from Hartford College.
- 2) Soapy decided to feast himself in a cafe before going to the jailhouse.
- 3) Soapy is taken into confinement.
- 4) Soapy was not caught by the police for throwing stones at the glass.
- 5) He decided to go into the roaring downtown the next day and find work.
- 6) Soapy arose joint by joint as a carpenter's rule opens.
- 7) Soapy heard the sweet notes of the anthem.
- 8) Soapy became nostalgic.