Punctuation

Statements tell you something, and end with a period [.]

Questions ask something. They end with a question mark [?]

Exclamations are sentences that show excitement. They end with an exclamation point. [!]

Read the sentences below. Select the punctuation mark that shows the correct punctuation mark.

1. Where are we going
2. Please bring that here
3. Oh, wow That's amazing
4. I need help please
5. Why are you walking so fast
6. It's time for the baby to take a nap
7. Who is at the door
8. Can you call your sister please
9. What shall we eat for lunch
10. Happy Birthday, Sarah
11. Please pass the papers back
12. Will you come to school tomorrow
13. This sunrise is so beautiful
14. Where did I put the pens
15. Cameron is not coming to class today
16. How do you turn this computer on

Punctuation

Statements tell you something, and end with a period [.]

Questions ask something. They end with a question mark [?]

Exclamations are sentences that show excitement. They end with an exclamation point. [!]

17. Look out for the bee

18. What is your favorite color

19. It's time for our WebEx meeting

20. I'm so excited for the weekend

21. Which one do you want

22. Please do not touch the laptop

23. Do you want to eat breakfast now

24. Hey You took my bike

25. What makes you happy