

Physical or chemical changes

Below are examples of physical and chemical changes. Write 'P' on the line if you think the example is a physical way. Write a 'C' on the line if you think it is a chemical way.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. Water evaporating _____ | 13. Milk going sour _____ |
| 2. Lighting a match _____ | 14. Sand and dirt mixing _____ |
| 3. Baking a cake _____ | 15. Smashing a glass _____ |
| 4. Butter melting _____ | 16. Cooking an egg _____ |
| 5. Popping a balloon _____ | 17. Breaking an egg _____ |
| 6. Making toast _____ | 18. Digesting food _____ |
| 7. Molding clay _____ | 19. Chopping an apple _____ |
| 8. Cutting paper _____ | 20. Carving a pumpkin _____ |
| 9. A nail rusting _____ | 21. Fireworks exploding _____ |
| 10. Ripping your jeans _____ | 22. Banana turning brown _____ |
| 11. Water freezing _____ | |
| 12. Wood burning _____ | |