All About Respect by Narwhales

When we meet someone new it's a perfect chance We can ask them their name and we can shake their We can ask them a question, learn a thing or two How do we love each other?
Here's the simple

It's all about respect,
all about,
all about respect
to show you care

Do you want someone to listen
when you speak?
Do you want someone to ask you questions about your?
Do you want someone to say something nice to you?
Let's treat others as you'd want them to treat you

Because it's all about respect,
all about respect,
all about respect
to show you
