'The Shadow'

Last weekend Tom was camping with his friends in a campsite near his house. They did not want to go home because they were having a very good time. But on the last night they were all very tired so they all went to sleep early.

In the middle of the night a strange noise woke Tom up. He heard a loud bang, like a gun. He was very scared, but he got up and looked outside his tent. He couldn't see anything because it was so dark. He decided to go outside and look around. He found a stick to use as a weapon and put on his coat because it was raining very heavily.

Then he saw a bright light and a big man was walking towards him. He screamed. The man put his hand on his shoulder, "Tom, Tom! It's me, Dad!" Tom looked up. "It was raining, so we came to get you." Tom was very surprised but happy!
