

Prepositions IN ON AT. Complete the sentences with a preposition of time or place.

1. Spring begins _____ September 21.
2. The wedding reception will be _____ Sunday _____ four o'clock _____ the afternoon.
3. I left my homework _____ home.
4. Recently he has been having trouble getting to sleep _____ night.
5. The tax office is _____ the second floor.
6. The bus arrived late, so I'll be _____ work at nine.
7. The landscape is lovely _____ the coast.
8. Yesterday, I saw a dolphin while I was _____ the island.

Frequency adverbs. Rewrite the sentence using the frequency adverb.

1. She walks to school. (usually) _____
2. He visits his grandparents. (twice a week) _____
3. He doesn't drink coffee. (often) _____
4. Tony is late for school. (never) _____
5. I have breakfast. (everyday) _____

ING or TO+INF. Choose a verb from the box and complete each sentence with its correct form.

1. I'd like _____ (see) you again sometime.
2. I'm completely broke, so I can't afford _____ (go) on holiday.
3. I promise _____ (take) you to the park next week.
4. I must practice _____ (speak) English.
5. I really enjoy _____ (play) with my nephew.

Used to. Complete each sentence with the correct form of used to.

1. Why did people _____ (mend) their own clothes.
2. I _____ (not/play) football, but I do now.
3. John _____ (like) Mary, but he doesn't now.

Phrasal verbs. Complete the sentences with a phrasal verb from the box.

give up	hang on	take up	put your name down	sign in	set off go on	look forward to	go off	join in	run out of

1. What new sport should I _____ in my free time?
2. What time will we have to _____ for the station tomorrow?
3. I love playing football. Can I _____?
4. I have to go to the grocery store. I've _____ sugar.
5. I _____ going on holidays.