

GIVING ADVICE

Activity 1: LISTEN AND COMPLETE

Alex: Can I ask your advice about something?

Lewis: Of course. What's the problem?

Alex: Well, I want to get _____, But I think _____ for my studies.

Lewis: If I were you, _____. Then you'd have your job on _____ and _____, and school work _____.

Alex: That's a good idea!

Activity 2: COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE USING THE WORDS BELOW.
DRAG AND DROP

about something a good idea if I went If I were you What's the problem wouldn't have

Freya: Can I ask your advice _____?
Marta: Of course. _____?
Freya: I want to buy a surfboard, but my parents don't want me to have one.
Marta: Why not?
Freya: They think that _____ surfing on the weekend, I _____ time for my studies.
Marta: Well, your studies are important. _____, I'd study for my exams now, and then try to get a surfboard during the summer vacations.
Freya: That's _____. Thanks.

Activity 3: WRITE YOUR OWN DIALOGUE USING THE IDEAS BELOW.

You want to...	Your parents think...
play the guitar in a rock band	you would be too tired for school
get a job in a café	you wouldn't have time for your studies
volunteer to help homeless people	the work would make you feel upset