

Let's Practice

Past Tense: Read, look and match.

1 Last week David's class went to a museum.

2 First they walked round an exhibition about explorers.

3 They could read explorers' diaries, so it was really exciting.

4 Before lunch they made a poster about famous explorers.

5 After lunch they found the museum shop and David got a toy polar bear for his sister.

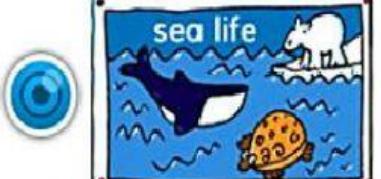

6 In the afternoon they went to an exhibition about sea animals.

7 Before they came home, David took a photograph of his friends.

8 At three o'clock they caught the bus home.

Listen the following questions and choose the right answer:

1. When did David's class go to a museum?
2. What did they do first?
3. What did they make?
4. When did they go to the museum shop?
5. Who did David get a toy polar bear for?
6. Where did they go in the afternoon?
7. Who did David take a photograph of?
8. What time did they catch the bus?

Choose the right answer:

- a. First they walked round an exhibition about explorers.
- b. David took a photograph of his friends.
- c. He got a toy polar bear for his sister.
- d. They caught the bus at three o'clock.
- e. In the afternoon they went to an exhibition about sea animals.
- f. They made a poster about famous explorers.
- g. They went to a museum last week.
- h. They went to the museum shop after lunch.

Using "so" .

So is used to show consequences or results. This means that the second part of the sentence is a result of the first part.

Examples:

My knees started hurting so I stopped running.

I was lost so I bought a map.

Let's practice : Read and match.

1 They were hungry so .

2 They didn't take water with them so .

3 The exhibition was really good so .

4 It was his sister's birthday so .

5 The children had to wait for the bus so .

6 They lost their map so .

they couldn't find the museum

they were thirsty

they had a great time

they ate sandwiches

they came home late

he got a toy from the shop

You can do it!