|  A cartoon illustration of a child with brown hair, wearing a white shirt and blue pants, playing with a large, multi-colored beach ball. The ball is divided into four equal sections: blue, yellow, red, and green. The child is holding the green section and appears to be in the middle of a "shutting" motion, as if closing their hands around the ball. The background is plain white. 1 of 9 - Super Simple Songs Three - Open Shut Them (and Other Opposites) | Write: |
