

FATHER AND SON

It's not time to make a

settle down (x2) time

Just relax, take it easy change(x2)

You're still young, that's your marry(x2) go away(x2)

There's so much you have to know

fault ignore

Find a girl,

If you want you can

Look at me, I am old, but I'm happy

I was once like you are now, and I know that it's not easy

To be calm when you've found something going on

But take your, think a lot

Why, think of everything you've got

For you will still be here tomorrow, but your dreams may not

How can I try to explain? 'Cause when I do he turns away again

It's always been the same, same old story From the moment I could talk I was ordered to listen

Now there's a way and I know that I have to

I know I have to go

It's not time to make a

Just sit down, take it slowly

You're still young, that's your fault

There's so much you have to go through

Find a girl,

If you want you can

Look at me, I am old, but I'm happy

All the times that I cried, keeping all the things I knew inside

It's hard, but it's harder to it

If they were right, I'd agree, but it's them they know not me

Now there's a way and I know that I have to

I know I have to go

"Father and Son" is a popular song written and performed by English singer-songwriter Cat Stevens in 1970. The song frames a heartbreakingly exchange between a father not understanding a son's desire to break away and shape a new life, and the son who cannot really explain himself but knows that it is time for him to seek his own destiny. The song has been covered many times since its original release.
