

Lesson 4 WB. Activity 5

Scan the passage quickly and find the answers to the questions

You will usually hear a large drum called Al-Ras and three smaller drums played during an Emirati dance called the Al Ayyalah. The dance is performed by men who stand in two lines opposite each other. They link arms and wave sticks as they move to the beat of the drum.

A flute called a mizmar and three different types of drums – the shindo, the jabwah and the jasser – are played during another popular dance called the Liwa. This dance came to the Gulf many years ago from East Africa.

- 1- Which dance came from East Africa?
- 2- What instruments are a shindo , a jabwah and a jasser?
- 3- What kind of instrument is a mizmar?
- 4- What instruments are played during the Al Ayyalah?