

Comparative/Superlative

The Smiths are a very adventurous family. This is what they DID last year. Complete using the past form of the verbs in brackets and the comparative (++) or superlative (+++) form of the adjectives.

★ Last November, the Smith's (buy) plane tickets and they (go) to Chile. They (see) beautiful mountains but they weren't (++ high) the Aconcagua. Mr. Smith (climb) one of them but he (not reach) the top because he (be) very tired!

★ Last winter holidays, Mrs Smith and grandma (visit) Ushuaia. It (be) really cold there! It is (+++cold) place in Argentina. They (do) many entertaining things but they (not ski) because they (not have) special clothes and it (be) too dangerous.

★ Eight months ago, the children (travel) to Disney. They (ride) many rollercoasters and (take) lots of pictures. They (love) Magic Kingdom because it is (+++big) theme park in the world, and it is (++good) "Parque de la Costa".

