A. Write a word from the box below to name the type of noun underlined in EACH sentence. Use each word ONCE only.

abstract	collective	common	proper

EXAMPLE: A swarm of bees attacked the hikers. (collective)

1. Many young doctors now work in the city of San Fernando. _____
2. The students were rewarded for their honesty. _____
3. The sky is cloudy today. _____
4. The school choir will soon go on a Caribbean tour. _____
5. We enjoyed the silence of the night. _____
6. The plague of locusts devoured the farmers crops. _____
7. The petals of flowers attract insects. _____
8. Maracas is a popular beach in Trinidad. _____

B. Use an appropriate COLLECTIVE NOUN to complete each sentence.

gaggle,	board,	suit,	brood,	troupe,	gang,	herd,	troop

9. The farmer monitored the _____ of chicks carefully.
10. The _____ of directors will meet today for their monthly meeting.
11. The loud commotion was caused by the _____ of geese.
12. A _____ of monkeys stole the bananas from the vendors at the market.
13. The _____ of thieves was cornered in the deserted building.
14. Mummy bought me a new _____ of clothes for the wedding.
15. We were amazed by the skills of the _____ of dancers.
16. We saw a _____ of cattle as we drove along the highway.