

GRAMMAR

English is	more	interesting	than	Maths.
Cars are	more	expensive	than	bikes.
The princess	more	beautiful	than	the frog.
Life was	more	difficult	than	it is today.

- 1 Look at the pens. Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

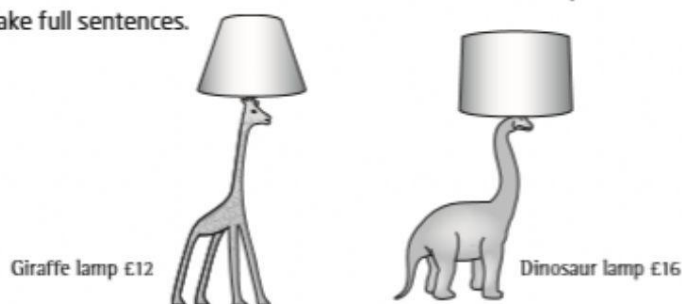

- A doll pen is more interesting than a fountain pen. (interesting)
- The doll pens are more expensive than the funny pens. (expensive)
- The pens for children are more exciting than the pens for adults. (exciting)
- A fountain pen is more old-fashioned than a ballpoint pen. (old-fashioned)

- 2 Write. Make sentences. Then circle I agree or I don't agree.

- The princess / the frog (beautiful)
My princess is more beautiful than the frog. ☒ I agree ☐ I don't agree
- Science / English (difficult)
I don't agree. ☐ I agree ☒ I don't agree
- Electric lights / computer games (important)
I don't agree. ☐ I agree ☒ I don't agree
- Vegetables / fruit (delicious)
I don't agree. ☐ I agree ☒ I don't agree

- 3 Look and write. Write five differences between the lamps. Make full sentences.

- (expensive) The dinosaur lamp is more expensive than the giraffe lamp.
- I think (exciting) I think the dinosaur lamp is more exciting than the giraffe lamp.
- I think (modern) I think the dinosaur lamp is more modern than the giraffe lamp.
- I think (prettier) I think the dinosaur lamp is prettier than the giraffe lamp.
- I think (funny) I think the dinosaur lamp is funnier than the giraffe lamp.
- I think (tall) I think the giraffe lamp is taller than the dinosaur lamp.

- 4 Listen. Complete the dialogue with the missing words. TR: 15

Woman: Excuse me. I'm looking for a lamp for my son's birthday. Can you help me?

Man: Of course! How about this giraffe lamp or this dinosaur lamp?

Woman: Yes, the dinosaur lamp is nice. It's more expensive than the giraffe lamp, and it's funnier.

Man: That's true, but the giraffe lamp is taller. It's more modern, too.

Woman: I'd like the dinosaur lamp, please. I know it's more expensive, but my son will be happy with it!