Fill in the gaps and then put the story in the right order.

Use these verbs in the Past Continuous sleep text think become get shine enjoy wait cycle walk feel sing go look

After cycling for an hour or so, he saw a herd of cows. They _____ _____ along birds _____ _____ and it was very peaceful. Suddenly, as he turned a corner, he saw the cows again – they _____ _____ in the middle of the road!

and set off again. The hills _____ _____ more difficult to climb but the views were wonderful. The

The lemon tea and cake were very good and after 20 minutes he left. The sun _____ still _____ and it _____ _____ very warm. He got onto his bike the road and he wondered where they _____ _____. By this time, he _____ _____ tired and thirsty so he stopped at a café.

He went in and ordered a lemon tea and a piece of cake. While he _____ _____ he looked around the room. It was crowded. An old couple _____ _____ at photographs and a group of teenagers _____ _____ on their phones.

the countryside around London as usual. He _____ _____ the sunshine and _____ _____ about his plans for the summer.

One Sunday morning, Robert Mitchum _____ _____ in