Fill in the blanks with shall have, was, were, have, shall be, will be, is, am, has, had, or will have.

1. The boy _____ (is, are, have) going to the market to make some purchase.
2. I _____(are, am, will be) not going to give in to the unfair pressure at the office.
3. Amrita _____ (shall have, am, was) on her way to the mall when she came across an old friend.
4. The team players _____ (were, am, was) too exhausted to perform any further.
5. There _____(was, has, shall be) light, but only if you open your eyes to it.
6. I _____ (have, had, will be) available next Monday, but I can't promise the same for next week.
7. I _____ (will have, were, am) given a free lunch.
8. Amrit _____ (has, will have, shall be) finished his reading by the time his mother gets home.
9. All deals made between bankers _____(were, have, will have) recorded by the management.
10. At this pace, I _____ (have, shall have, has) enough money to build a home in five years.
11. I _____ (were, had, will have) you arrested if you do not step back immediately.