

Complete the sentences using the present participle, the past participle or having + past participle of the verbs in parenthesis.

- 1- The boy ----- (look) through my movie collection is my cousin.
- 2- The audience, ----- (amaze) by the Grammy Awards, didn't stand up to applaud until the minute after the actors had bowed.
- 3- The actress ----- (sit) over there is Marlon Brando's granddaughter.
- 4- ----- (realize) that I wanted to be an actor, I asked my parents for drama and singing lessons.
- 5- There were many people ----- (wait) in line to buy a ticket for tonight's performance.
- 6- Movies ----- (make) in Hollywood tend to get more funding than those ----- (make) in Europe.
- 7- The play, ----- (stage) in a dark cold space, manages to capture the feeling of despair intended when it was written in 1940.
- 8- ----- (work) as a sound engineer for years, I can tell you most actors get help with their voice in the studio.
- 9- The writer, ----- (encourage) by the movie director, began working on his next novel.
- 10- ----- (watch) thousands of movies over the years, nothing really intrigued the old man anymore.

