

Draw lines to match each problem to its solution. Use scratch paper to show your work.

There are 4 children.
Each child saves 5
dimes. How many dimes
do they have in all?

Each child has 3

There are 3 children. Each child has the same number of balloons. There is a total of 9 balloons. How many balloons does each child have?

15 in all

There are 5 children. Each child has the same number of books. Together they have 20 books. How many books does each child have?

20 in all

There are 5 children. Each child has 3 markers. How many markers do they have altogether?

Each child has 4