

Choose two teams from the lists below. Draw a dot or star in that team’s original city. Draw a dot for each subsequent city the team relocated to. Draw a line between each city. For each team, use a different color line or different type of line. (Solid, dotted, dashed, etc.)

Baseball	Football	Basketball	Hockey
Atlanta Braves	Arizona Cardinals	Atlanta Hawks	New Jersey Devils
LA Dodgers	Oakland Raiders	LA Lakers	Dallas Stars
San Francisco Giants	Los Angeles Rams	Sacramento Kings	Colorado Avalanche
Minnesota Twins	Indianapolis Colts	New Orleans Pelicans	Colorado Rockies
Washington Nationals	Chicago Bears	Utah Jazz	Arizona Coyotes

You may choose a third team of your choice.

	Current City/ Location	Original City/ Location	Subsequent Cities/ Locations
1
2
3

1. Why do you think these teams moved?

Major league Baseball

- Boston: "Red Stockings," "Red Caps," "Beaneaters" 1876–1900 – now Atlanta Braves
- Brooklyn: "Grays," "Bridegrooms," "Grooms," "Superbas," "Robins," "Trolley Dodgers" 1890–1900 – transferred from the American Association; now Los Angeles Dodgers
- Chicago "White Stockings": 1876–1900 – now known as the Cubs
- Cincinnati: "Red Stockings" or "Reds" 1890–1900 – transferred from the American Association
- New York: occasionally "Gothams," more often "Giants" 1883–1900 – later the New York Giants and now San Francisco Giants
- Philadelphia 1883–1900 – very occasionally tagged "Quakers" 1883–1890, most often "Philadelphias" in the style of the day, shortened to "Phillies."
- Pittsburgh: 1887–1900 founded as Allegheny (a Pittsburgh suburb) and referred to in typical manner as "Alleghenys" 1883–1890, dubbed "Pirates" from 1891 – transferred from the American Association
- St. Louis "Brown Stockings or "Browns," later "Red Stockings" or "Reds" 1892–1900 – transferred from the American Association; now known as the Cardinals.

2. How many of the original baseball teams were located east of the Mississippi River?

Cities that hosted NFL teams in the 1920s and 1930s. Cities that still have NFL teams from that era are in black, while other cities are in red. Only teams that played more than ten games in the NFL are included.

3. Where were the original Pro Football Teams located? (Describe the area)

4. Where are the NFL teams located now? (Describe the area)