Read

- 1 Read the letter and write the names of the books and the authors.

1 Animal Farm by ...

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you that the Year 9 English Literature study books for next year will be Animal Farm and Journey to the River Sea.

We have chosen these books for a number of reasons. Animal Farm is an important book in the history of English literature. I'm sure many students have read it already. George Orwell, who wrote many important books, used the idea of animals taking over a farm to discuss the real world. Students can read and enjoy it as a simple story about animals. During the school year, they will learn about the message behind the story.

Journey to the River Sea, which is an exciting story that both boys and girls will enjoy, was written by Eva Ibbotson in 2001. It is set in 1910 and will give students useful historical information about that time. What's more, the story includes excellent descriptions of journeys and different countries, which will help students with their own writing.

We are sure that both you and your child will be happy with the choice of books. If you have any comments or questions, please contact me at the school.

Yours,

Connor Robertson
