

The author tells us that parents “took the extra shift.” What did they do?

They also often “did without.” What does this mean? _____

_____ To whom did they “send money back?”

_____ Why do you think they were saving? _____

When you “pour all that you have” or all of yourself into something, what are you doing? _____ culture = a group of people who share the same beliefs, values, and ways of doing things

Give an example of a way someone might have to shift from one culture to another culture. _____

In your opinion, is the advice these people gave good? ____ Explain. _____

What is a choice that the children of these people might have, but that their parents did not have? _____

What is the “great gift” that these people gave their children? _____

_____ Explain. _____

Reflect

Review the photographs in this book. Choose the photograph you like best and describe it. Include these details: the people, the setting (where they are), and what they are doing.

My favorite photograph shows _____

What do the people in the photo seem to be feeling? Do NOT use the words “happy” or “sad!” Use words like delighted, discouraged, hopeful, hopeless, determined, confused, lonely, thoughtful, exhausted, cheerful, carefree, anxious, amused. Choose two words to describe the peoples’ feelings.

The people in this photo seem _____ because _____ _____. I think they feel _____ since they _____

How does this photo make you feel? Do NOT use words like “happy” or “sad.” Use more powerful words.

When I look at this photo, I feel _____. The reason I feel this way is that _____.
