

PAST EVENTS (REVIEW)

1) Read this text and choose the best option.

I'd been looking forward to Fiona's barbecue for weeks. However, just a couple of hours before the barbecue, my best mate, Jess, (1) called / had called to tell me that she (2) didn't feel / hadn't felt well, and - guess what! - she wasn't coming to the barbecue. I (3) was / had been very disappointed because we (4) planned / had planned to go together, but I (5) decided / had decided to try and forget about it. So I (6) put / had put on my best smile, (7) took / had taken the present I (8) bought / had bought for Fiona and (9) went / had gone to the barbecue. By the time I (10) got / had got there, everyone was eating and having a great time. Luckily, I (11) found / had found some old friends, Emma and Mark, there. I (12) didn't see / hadn't seen either of them since they moved to Edinburgh. We (13) spent / had spent the whole evening talking and laughing. So, in the end, it (14) turned / had turned out to be a wonderful evening.

2) Read and choose the sentence which is closest in meaning to the one given.

1. When the bell rang, the students had completed the test.
  - a. While the students were completing the test, the bell rang.
  - b. The students completed the test before the bell rang.
  - c. The bell rang and then the students completed the test.
2. By the time my friend came, we had cut the cake.
  - a. We cut the cake before my friend came.
  - b. We cut the cake when my friend came.
  - c. We were cutting the cake when my friend came.
3. As soon as Fred had finished washing the car, it started raining.
  - a. It started raining before Fred finished washing the car.
  - b. It started raining after Fred finished washing the car.
  - c. It was raining while Fred was washing the car.
4. Vivian and Tom had already ordered dinner when we arrived at the restaurant.
  - a. Vivian and Tom ordered dinner after we arrived at the restaurant.
  - b. We arrived at the restaurant when Vivian and Tom were ordering dinner.
  - c. We arrived at the restaurant after Vivian and Tom had ordered dinner.
5. The girl didn't go out until she had done her homework.
  - a. The girl did her homework after she went out.
  - b. The girl didn't go out because she had to do her homework.
  - c. The girl did her homework first and then she went out.