SECTION I (READING COMPREHENSION)

(Q. No. 1-10) Read the following passage from the lesson "The Cry of Children".

The Cry of Children

"For oh," say the children, "we are weary
And we cannot run or leap;
If we cared for any meadows, it were merely
To drop down in them and sleep.
Our knees tremble sorely in the stooping,
We fall upon our faces, trying to go;
And underneath our heavy eyelids drooping
The reddest flower would look as pale as snow.

For, all day, we drag our burden tiring
Through the coal – dark, underground;
Or, all day we drive the wheels or iron
In the factories, round and round."

- Elizabeth Barrett Browning
