

Personality adjectives

1. Match the descriptions and the adjectives

He likes to write poems and songs, he is ...	ambitious
She loves extreme sports, she is ...	confident
He studies all the time, he is ...	independent
He wants to become the boss of this company, he is very ...	sociable
They are sure they will get good grades in their exam, they are ...	sensitive
He does not live with his parents, he works and earns money, he is	hard-working
She loves meeting new people and talking to them, she is ...	creative
He understands the feelings of other people and does not want to hurt them, he is ...	adventurous
He thinks first, and then acts, he is very realistic and	cheerful
She always smiles, she is	sensible

2. Fill the gaps with the adjectives (the first and the last letters are given). Write the whole word, including the first and the last letters, e.g. i....t, you write: independent:

A teacher is s....e because she should always think before she says something or does something; she is c.....e because she has to make funny tasks; she should be s....e because she has to talk to student and parents a lot.