

Why should you learn English? 5 reasons

Watch this video (7 mn).

Fill in the blanks with the words used in the video.

Do you fancy learning English in your time?

1. English is a global language: it's worldwide. People understand or speak English as their language in many countries. When travelling or visiting different countries, if people don't speak your language, then English comes to the
2. English will open a world of new If you are seeking for or if you are travelling, English is helpful. Speaking English effectively will give you more opportunities when applying for a job related to, the film or the
3. English will make you a hot : it means that employers will want to you if you speak English confidently and have great communication You will be considered as a hot property in the for the employers. Besides, English is also considered as a language, therefore you will be able to converse with foreign People will be impressed if you use powerful English words in your or during an So it will make your evolve positively.
4. English is a language to learn! It has simple alphabets , not complicated symbols, other languages.
5. English is plain! You will understand movies, TV and games. English is widely used on the

So go ahead and start English!

Don't forget to use the box below to translate the vocabulary you didn't understand into your native language .