The Magic Carpet Ride

Austin climbs into bed and opens his book to read a story. All of a sudden, a strong wind blows his bedroom window open.

As he starts to close the window, he sees a magic carpet floating outside. Austin climbs onto the carpet and takes off into the night sky. "Wow! This must be what it feels like to be a bird," Austin thinks to himself. Suddenly, he hears someone calling his name. He opens his eyes and hears his mother saying, "Austin, it's time to put away your book and go to sleep." Austin had been dreaming the whole time!
