The Cool Fort

Ben and Derrick live next door to each other and they play together everyday after school. All the other boys in the neighborhood are older than they are. The older boys have a cool fort in the woods where they hang out.

Since Ben and Derrick are younger, the older boys never let them play with them in the fort. One day, Ben and Derrick decide that they are going to build their own fort. They gather old pieces of lumber and plywood, a hammer, and some nails. Ben's dad helps them get started. Soon, they have the biggest and best fort ever!
