

LISTENING

1. You're going to watch a video, it's the trailer from a sitcom called Modern Family.

2. Read the questions BEFORE watching the video. Make sure you understand the vocabulary.

a. How many families are there in the video? What are their names?

b. Do you think the three families know each other?

c. How many people are there in each family?

d. In the first couple, where does she come from? What information does she give about her village?

e. In the second family, why are the children fighting? What is the punishment to the boy?

f. In the third family, where they come from with a baby? Why does Mitchell talk to everybody on the plane?

g. What happened in the garden? Did the father finally shoot his son?

SPEAKING

- Do you get on well with your family?
- Do you have any brothers or sisters? If so, how old are they?
- Do you have children? If so, what are their names and ages?
- Are chores assigned to children in your family? What about when you were a child?
- Do you look more like your father or your mother?
- Were you named after a member of your family? Who?
- What do you and your family like doing together?
- How often does your family get together?
- Do you get on well with your in-laws?
- Who is the 'black sheep' of your family?
- What was the most important lesson your parents taught you?
- What's the best thing about your family? And what about the worst?
- Who's your favourite relative? Why?