

CLAASWORK

PRACTICE 14.1B Identifying transitive and intransitive Verb

Read the sentences. Write each verb and label it transitive or intransitive.

EXAMPLE: New York City offers many attractions for tourists.

ANSWER: offers—transitive

11. During World War II, Japan cooperated with Germany.

12. Brenda took a trip to Arizona with her family.

13. Vendors usually sell pretzels at baseball games.

14. Each boy named his favorite sport.

15. My brother ran in the 100-yard dash.

16. The game lasted for almost two hours.

17. Please explain your actions to the principal.

18. The dog slept peacefully on the floor all morning.

19. After a long train ride, we reached the village.

20. Receiving loud applause, the dancer grinned broadly.

