II - READING:

3) Read a review about the Harry Potter movie and answer exercises A and B: (1,8)

If you like action and mystery, try Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix. Based on the novel of the same name, this terrific movie, which is part of the popular Harry Potter series, definitely exceeded my expectations.

The story is mainly about Harry and his closest friends, Hermione and Ron, joining the Order of the Phoenix, which is an organization created by Dumbledore, the director of the ancient Hogwarts School of Magic, to fight the evil Lord Voldemort, who tried to kill Harry when he was just a baby.

The movie captivates, not only because of the amazing special effects but also because of the intriguing new characters we meet. It also focuses on Harry's first love, a gorgeous student called Cho Chang. However, despite the romantic element, this story is much darker and tenser than the previous ones.

Although it's rather long—over two hours—fanatical Potter and J.K. Rowling followers might be a little disappointed, as important parts of the original story are left out. Because of that, those who haven't read the book may find it difficult to understand the plot.

Despite these minor issues, in my opinion, this is the best Harry Potter movie as it combines the fascination with wizards, the problems and dilemmas of teenagers and the magical world of Hogwarts extremely well. I'd say it's a must see and I'd certainly recommend it.

A - Mark with an X the correct answer:

- a) The movie is based on a book / soap opera
- b) The story is more dramatic / humorous than the previous ones.
- c) The movie includes / doesn't include all the important parts of the story.
- d) The review gives it two / four stars out of five.

B - In which paragraph, 1-5, does the reviewer?
recommend it or not?

mention the positive points?

name the main characters?

mention negative points?
