3 Choose the correct word from the box. Write on the lines to complete the sentences.

subject he, she, or it singular plural subject agree

- The verb of a sentence has to with the subject.
- 2. When the subject of a sentence is the pronoun, you add -s or -es to the verb.
- A noun refers to two or more people, animals, or objects.
- The ______ of a sentence is the person, animal, or object that does the action. It can also be a pronoun.
- 5. If you add -s or -es to a verb, it means that the subject is _____.
- Read the sentences. Underline the singular subjects and circle the plural ones.
 - 1. Vegetables are healthy.
 - 2. An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
 - 3. Most people exercise in order to be healthy.
 - 4. In the morning, she drinks orange juice.

Work in pairs. Choose two singular subjects and two plural subjects to create a short story. Write it below.

Read your short story to another pair. Ask them to represent it using only gestures. Can they perform the story like you imagined?