Sign Language

Speaking with our mouth is not the only way to communicate. Some people have difficulty speaking, but would like to communicate. One way to do this is to use something called sign language. People who use sign language use their body to speak, such as using hand gestures instead of making words with their mouths.

SUGGESTED CUE/S:

"What is this person requesting?"

"Show me how to sign for more."

Task: Read the passage below.

Sometimes it is appropriate to give someone a hug. If the person is a family member, or a very close friend, we may give them a hug. If the person is a stranger, or someone we don't know well, we usually don't greet with a hug.

Task: Say, "The main topic tells what a story is about. Look at the pictures below. Circle all the pictures tell about the main topic." (teacher may reread the passage if the student would benefit)
