Conjunctive Adverbs of Addition

Directions: Combine the two sentences into one by adding the conjunctive adverb.

1. I like my math class. I like my science class.
   → in addition

2. Shawn earned the highest grade in his class. He won an award for his project.
   → furthermore

3. Exercise is good for your health. It is fun.
   → moreover

4. Smoking is dangerous. It is an expensive habit.
   → furthermore

5. The storm caused a power outage. It destroyed property.
   → additionally

6. I wore a thick coat because it was so cold outside. I wore a scarf.
   → also

7. I wash my dog after school. I feed him.
   → in addition

8. She went into the store to pay for the gas. She bought a drink and a snack.
   → additionally

9. I love to go fishing. I have fished in lakes, rivers, and the ocean.
   → moreover

10. The students need to clean up the cafeteria. They must stay after school to do it.
    → furthermore