Reptiles

Reptiles are born from eggs.
Their bodies are covered in hard scales
Reptiles have short legs or no legs like snakes.
Some reptiles have a shell, like turtles.
Cold blooded, that means their temperature depends on their environment.
Reptiles breathe through their lungs.
They live in warm places.

Word Bank:

Warm eggs snakes
Scales turtles short
Lungs temperature