

Lexington and Concord

Questions

- ___1. What made the Battles of Lexington and Concord significant?
- a. They were the LAST battles of the Revolutionary War.
 - b. They were the FIRST battles of the Revolutionary War.
 - c. They were both deadly battles in the Revolutionary War.
- ___2. Who fired the first shots in the Battle of Lexington?
- a. The British
 - b. The Americans
 - c. No one knows for sure.
- ___3. How were the militiamen warned that the British were coming?
- a. Pigeons
 - b. Riders like Paul Revere
 - c. Smoke signals.
- ___4. What did the Americans do after the British started to retreat?
- a. They harassed the British forces as they retreated and then surrounded Boston.
 - b. They stayed in Concord hoping that the war was over.
 - c. They went back to their homes.
- ___5. Around how many men died in the two battles?
- a. 50
 - b. 10
 - c. 100