

Money

Damn it!- I lost 100 ____ and the CDs I bought were a ____ - ___. I'll have to wait for _____ in the sales

Label the pictures

British or American?
Write "B" or "A"

A penny
a nickel a fiver
a grand a dime
a buck a quid
a tenner a five-dollar bill
a quarter
a five-pound note

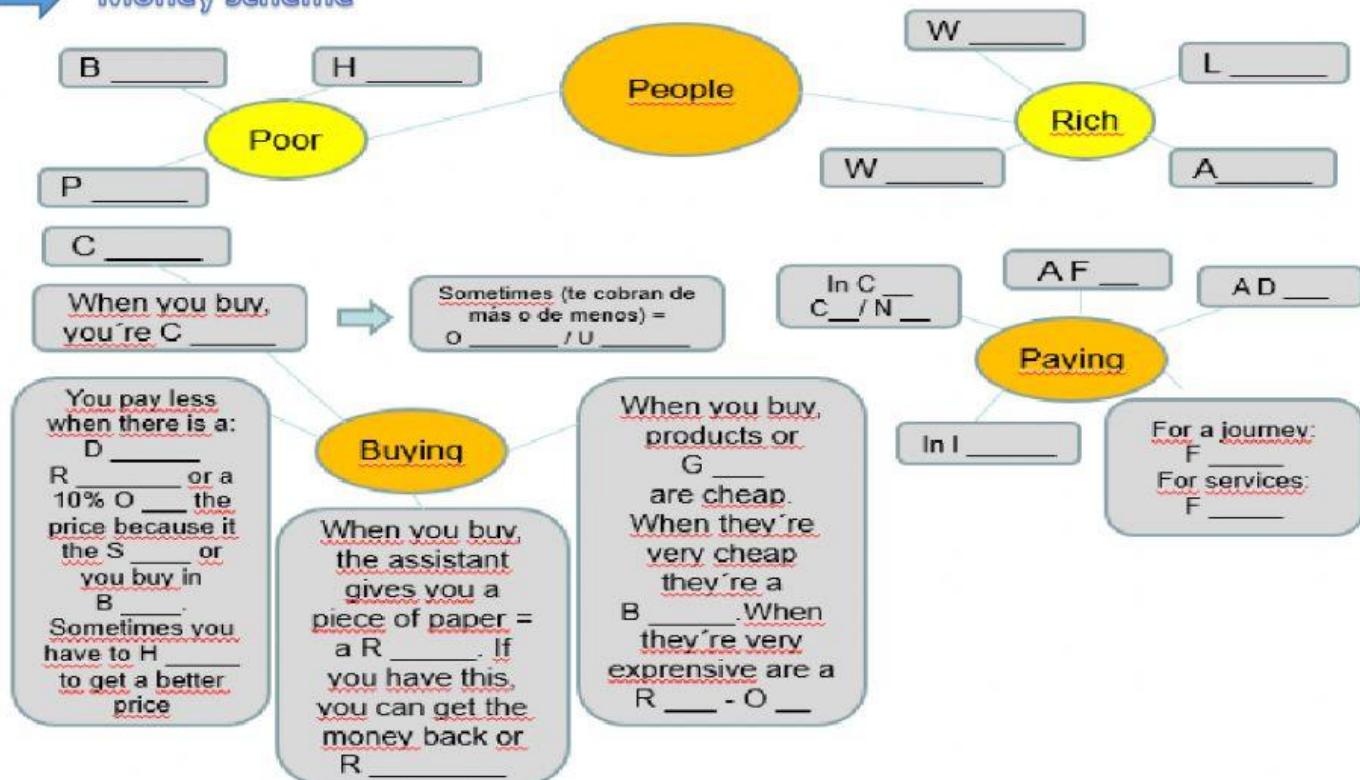

4 Idioms related to money

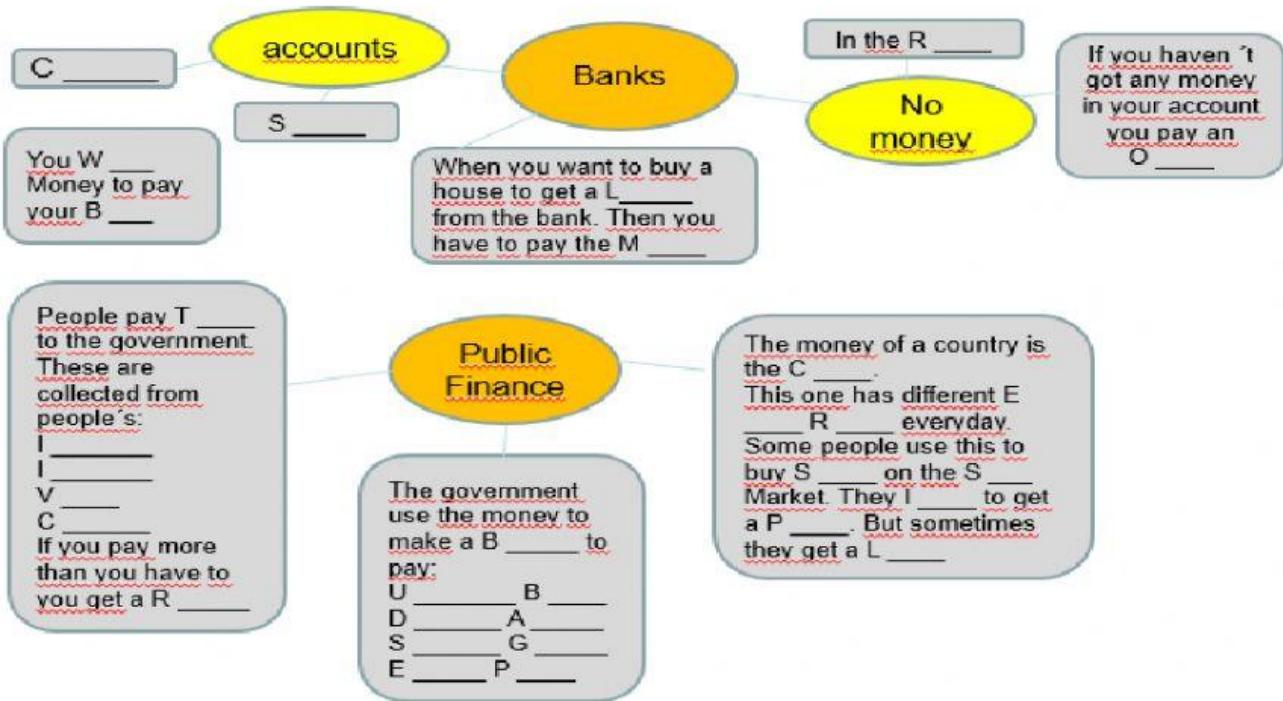

a Match sentences 1-8 with A-H.

- 1 They've got a ten-bedroomed house.
- 2 Jack's broke again.
- 3 That restaurant has good food at a reasonable price.
- 4 Their income doesn't cover their basic expenses.
- 5 I have an overdraft at the bank.
- 6 Do you think Mark will lend me the money?
- 7 Dan has bought two sports cars.
- 8 They have a luxurious lifestyle which they can't really afford.

- A He's got more money than sense
- B No way. He's really tight-fisted.
- C I'm in the red (opp in the black)
- D It must have cost a fortune.
- E It's good value for money.
- F I'm not surprised. He spends money like water.
- G They're living beyond their means
- H They can't make ends meet.

Money scheme

1 Nouns for money or payments

- the money that is available to a person or organization
- a sum of money that is given by the government or another organization to be used for a particular purpose, e.g. education
- money that a bank lends and somebody borrows
- an amount of money you pay for professional advice or services, e.g. to a lawyer or architect
- the money you pay to travel by bus, plane, taxi, etc.
- the amount of money sb asks for goods and services, etc.

- money that you keep in the bank and don't spend
- money that you give to an organization such as a charity in order to help them
- a sum of money that must be paid as punishment for breaking a law or a rule
- one of a number of payments that are paid regularly until sth has been paid for
- a sum of money that is given as the first part of a larger payment

- a legal document that says what is to happen to sb's money and property after they die
- the amount of money that you owe to a bank when you have spent more than is in your bank account

→ Listening: attitudes to money

- I have a very relaxed attitude to money – too relaxed, probably. I've never managed [redacted]. I find money [redacted]. If I have some, I tend to spend it on books, magazines, music. And when it's gone, it's gone. When I do have money, I'm quite generous with it and pay for my friends if they're [redacted]. So I find that [redacted] there's more often than not a friend that can pay for me. I'd prefer to be like that with money than [redacted]. Although I know I should save some, I really don't like people who are [redacted] with their money. Friends are much [redacted] than cash.
- My family is not [redacted], and I was always [redacted] with money. I've been [redacted] to know the value of everything, and not to waste anything. My parents work hard but [redacted] much for us when we were growing up and don't give us much of [redacted]. Me and my brothers always found ways to earn a bit of money. If we particularly wanted something, we saved up hard for it. Now I work twice a week in my local supermarket – on Thursday evenings and all day Saturday. I've got my own bank account and I write down my weekly [redacted] [redacted]. I'm always careful to keep some back for a [redacted]
- I wish I was more interested in money, but I'm not and never have been. If my mum gives me some [redacted] I tend to lose it. I'm not really [redacted] with money – I suppose it's important, and one day I'll have to get a job and [redacted]. But I'm just [redacted] about having [redacted] possessions. I suppose [redacted] than severely [redacted] but actually I don't think I'll need much money in the future. I like making things and buying second-hand stuff. Things don't have to be expensive to [redacted]. I think that other things are much more [redacted]. Things like friendship, I mean, which is priceless.