Hi Elena,

Do you know anyone who wants to buy a  computer? The monitor has a 23" , with an integrated webcam and a  with good sound quality. And of course you can use  to get on the Internet, but the computer includes cables too. I got a  for my birthday and I don't need two computers. I don't need a separate mouse or , but it's a bit heavy to take to school. At the moment I take work to school on a , but they are very small and I lose them! So now I want to sell the desktop and use the money to buy a small  with a touch screen. Let me know if anyone is interested. Thanks!

Kylie
