Level of Extinction

Cut out and place each level of extinction in its correct order from Extinct to Least Concern.

			The species no longer exist.
		!	The species is extinct in its natural habitat. Individuals still exist in captivity (such as in a zoo) or cultivation ( such as in a botanic garden)
			Extremely high risk of extinction in the wild.
			Very high risk of extinction in the wild.
		1	High risk of extinction in the wild.
			At risk of extinction if the population continues to decline.
, - , , ,			The populatio threat.	n is abun	dant and n	ot under
Critically Endangered CR	Least Concerned LC	Near Threatened		Entinct in the Wild EW	Endangered EN	Vulnerable VU

PLAX www.learnfromplay.com