

Without you (Ohne dich)

Rammstein

I'll go into the tallest / silent firs.
Into the woodland where I last saw her / you.
But the morning / evening comes and casts a veil
Over the land and distant meadow / forest trails.
Now the woods seem darker than before / yesterday .
Sorrow and pain,
And the birds are singing / flying no more.

Without you I cannot live / be. Without you.
But loneliness keeps haunting me when I am with you / her.
Without you I'm counting minutes / hours. Without you.
But frozen seconds / minutes spent with you are worthless too.

Lifeless ditches, empty trees / branches,
And oh, it's getting so hard / easy to breathe.
Eerie sight that hurts me to the bones / core.
Sorrow and pain.
And the birds are flying / singing no more.

Without you I cannot live / be. Without you.
But loneliness keeps haunting me when I am with you / her.
Without you I'm counting minutes / hours. Without you.
But frozen seconds / minutes spent with you are worthless too...
