

Reading: North & South

First things first! Read the text before doing the activities

A. What is the text about? Select the correct option:

The text is about the location of things.	The text is about the seasons in the different hemispheres.	The text is about the climatic change in the world.	The text is about how to use a compass.
---	---	---	---

B. Read carefully and complete the sentences with the words below:

NORTHERN	EQUATOR	SOUTHERN	HEMISPHERES
----------	---------	----------	-------------

- The _____ is the imaginary line that divides the world in two halves.
- These halves are called _____.
- There are two hemispheres. North of the Equator is the _____ hemisphere.
- South of the Equator is the _____ hemisphere.

C. Read the statements carefully. Then, select TRUE or FALSE:

There is a real line in the middle of the world called Equator.	TRUE	FALSE
When it's winter in the North, it's winter in the South.	TRUE	FALSE
When it's summer in the North, it's winter in the South.	TRUE	FALSE
When it's winter, we usually go to the beach and play outside.	TRUE	FALSE
When it's summer, we usually eat fruits.	TRUE	FALSE
In autumn, the leaves turn orange.	TRUE	FALSE
The months of winter in the North are from December to February.	TRUE	FALSE
The summer months in the South are from December to February.	TRUE	FALSE