Today we had our school end-of-year celebration, and for the first time we decided to have an informal awards night to celebrate all of our hard work this year. It was so much fun.

Yolanda won the award for scoring (well) than anyone else in the class.

Sami works (hard) in our class, so he won best student award. Lots of people won awards for playing music. Kathryn won best singer – she sings (beautifully) than anyone I've ever heard. Olga and Declan both won the award for best musician – they both play their instruments (well) each other so we couldn't decide between them. Teri won the best sportsperson award – this year she ran (fast) and swam (well) than anyone else. And what about me? Well, I didn't do (well) the others, but I did win one award – most helpful student of the year, and I guess I'm happy with that!
